

REFERENCE : DAVE SNELL

We have known Dave Snell professionally for over a decade. Throughout this time he has undertaken a variety of maintenance and decorating projects for us both in our home and in our rental property. We have always been pleased with the results. Dave has a wide range of practical skills but knows his limitations so is always realistic in deciding what he can take on, how long a job is likely to take and provides realistic quotes.

Importantly for us, given that we both work full time so are often not at home during the day, Dave is extremely trustworthy and reliable. We have no concerns in giving him the key to our house or rented flat.

Dave always communicates regularly with us about the progress of any jobs, completes the work in the agreed time and for the agreed price. He respects our home and belongings and works tidily and ensures anyone who works with him does so too.

In summary we would have absolutely no hesitation in recommending Dave Snell for any domestic decorating or maintenance projects.

We would be happy to provide further details to support this reference if requested.
